Please limit your responses to the following questions to 150 words (maximum) per question.

1. Why do you want to be on the Board of Directors of Lionsgate Academy?

I want to be on the Board of Directors to help Lionsgate and its students succeed. I've been working with the students, parents and staff of Lionsgate academy since the middle of its first year. In that time I've seen Lionsgate, its students and its staff grow and change. I've seen them face hurdles and I have done my best to support overcoming these challenges. This experience has provided a humbling insight into what a complex organization Lionsgate is and what it needs to be successful. I want to bring this understanding to the board and help foster the future success of Lionsgate and more importantly the success of its students.

2. What strengths do you bring to the Board of Directors of Lionsgate Academy?

My greatest strength is my ability to collaborate with people to accomplish the task at hand efficiently, accurately and creatively. I have excellent interpersonal and communication skills, with a strong ability understand, empathize and reason with anyone. I have a strong work ethic and enjoy challenges.

A great deal of my time at Lionsgate has been working with students allowing me to understand and become friends with many of them. I have observed similarities between them and people I've been working with my entire career starting with theater and computer science in college and into my job as a software developer. Many of my friends and former co-workers have found ways to successfully live with symptoms of ASD. I consider this experience a strength that I can bring to the board to help recognize and pursue projects and opportunities that will guide our students into their transitional years.

3. On what other boards/committees have you served?

I was on an intranet development committee at the National Arbitration Forum. I've been a member of a number of different leadership committees while I worked at Best Buy. I've also been a member of the leadership at Lionsgate since the end of last school year.
